Rainbow for Girls*

A group for young women ages 11 - 20 who want to improve their lives, have fun and serve their community, while growing as individuals.

Knights of Pythagoras

A community-based mentoring organization for young men ages 7 - 20, which provides programs to promote leadership, responsibility and brotherhood.

Ruth Mitchell Tucker Girls Youth Department

A service-oriented organization which aims to enhance the character and growth of young women ages 8 - 18, enhancing their self-esteem and interest in higher education.

EDUCATIONAL INSTITUTE

For more than 15 years, PMYF has provided professional development and educational workshops and seminars for educators, human service professionals and school administrators throughout the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

PMYF's educational programs have included bullying prevention workshops, girls' leadership camps and LifeSkills camp, a week-long conference to teach teenagers responsibility by building relationships and friendships.

SCHOLARSHIPS

Through the generosity of Pennsylvania Masons, PMYF is able to provide scholarships for many youth in the Commonwealth. Relatives of Masons and members of Pennsylvania Masonic youth groups are welcome to apply for these opportunities. A resource guide is available at PMYF.org, which lists all scholarships a student might be eligible for.
